Please find below and/or attached an Office communication concerning this application or proceeding.

The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/090,110	Applicant(s) GUO ET AL.
	Examiner Larry D. Donaghue	Art Unit 2154

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Claims 1-6 are presented for examination.

Claims 7-16 have been withdrawn.

Claims 4 and 6 are allowed. As set forth in the last office action.

The rejection is maintain as set forth in the last office action and set forth below.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being Egawa et al. by 5,717,854.

Claims 1-3, 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Egawa et al 5,717,854.

Regarding to claimed invention, Egawa et al teaches high speed communications network interconnected processor unit as to claimed network of interconnected helper servers, see at least abstract, comprising: means for receiving requests for at least portions of continuous media object (such as control unit 34 receive request and then analyzes the request and determines what instruction should be issued see col. 4, lines 26-41); means for storing selected first portion of continuous media (such as storing multimedia data in the input/output units 31-1-31-n, see col. 26-41); and means for selectively forwarding stored portions of continuous media objects to other (such as retrieval request notification and a retrieval result notification are transmitted between processor units, see col. 4, lines 66-col.5, lines 1-12).

Regarding claim 2, 3, wherein continuous media objects comprise a plurality of ordered segments, and helper servers comprises means for receiving segments of a continuous media object from a plurality of servers (such as stream controller 41-3 stores pictures 2, 3,...and 10 and a plurality of users have issued requests to distribute the programs, and control server 43 manages stream controller 41-3 for receiving segment of continuous media object, see col. 8, lines 45-col. 9, lines 1-3).

Regarding claim 5, wherein plurality of helper servers each stores at least one segment of an identified continuous media object for collectively forming the entire continuous media object (such as figure 10 shows the synchronization between the CPU cells and simultaneously reading image data from a plurality of stream controller and displaying on a single display device, see col. 8-20).

Applicant's arguments filed 08/18/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues Egawa does not provide "means for selectively forwarding stored portions of continuous media objects to others of said helping servers and receivers requesting at least portions of said continuous media objects ..." as in applicants' claim .

Examiner disagrees, and to further support examiner position, note col. 6, line 66 - col. 7, line 10) . There is set forth that the data is copied from one stream controller (server) to another stream controller (helping server).
